

CAIRO Celebration CHOIR

“A Shimmering Light In The Egyptian Cultural Scene”

The Cairo Celebration Choir (CCC) was founded in the year 2000 by the choir’s artistic director Nayer Nagui. The CCC has been recognized as one of the finest musical entities in Egypt in the past decade. The choir has over 120 members from more than seven nationalities, its members various educational backgrounds and professions. All members were brought together by a passion for music, and a dedication to singing to spread cross-cultural understanding and appreciation locally and internationally. The CCC has performed in various cities locally including Cairo and Alexandria, and in regional performances including performances in North Africa and Europe.
